About This Game

The Goblins have been driven out of their homeland by man, chased through the mines by the Dwarfs and enslaved by the Orcs. Tech, Heavy, Tiny and of course the formidable King Hung Ree embark on a journey home – but before they can set out, Tech first needs to escape from his Orc prison and then round up the rest of the group. Only by joining forces will they manage to cross the territory of the Orcs. Along the way, they'll encounter all kinds of obstacles and puzzles that they'll only be able to overcome together.

Tech: He is the nerd and genius of the group. Give him a plan and some materials and he'll build a helicopter out of bubble gum and a chicken.

Heavy: There's nothing that Heavy can't move – apart from King...

Tiny: He is small, inconspicuous and can get into everywhere. He's even supposed to have broken into King's pantry once.

King Hung Ree: He is the chief of the Goblins and the crown of creation. Surely, he's also good for something – at least the other Goblins hope so...

Key Features:

- Varied: Nine challenging levels with constantly new, complex and exciting puzzles
- Multifaceted: Several solutions for each challenge encourage multiple playthroughs
- Unique: Each of your team members has special skills that affect your approach

- Clever: Combine the different skills of your team members to reach your destination alive
  - Challenging: Ever combined a flint and a pot? It's hard to even think of trying that!
  - A sight to see: Take a look around off the beaten path and you'll find many interesting things

If I had to dedicate the song first love to a game series, I would dedicate it to suikoden. It is a series of games that will always have a special place in my heart.

This game, the great gaias, remind of suiko 1 & 2. I am in love again.

Initially I thought the price was a bit steep, then considering the fact that it is a small group of people spending years on this gem, I don't mind the price anymore. And from what I could tell, if you match $1 to every hour of gameplay, this game is more than $30 worth since it promises 60+ hrs gameplay.. Many hair, such fun. Stioll buggy, but that is to be expected for an early access game that is clearly being developed by a garage team, or just a dude in a garage. That said, it is very fun, the concept is solid and the potential shines through. Mine bugged out on the returns, so I had to keep shutting it down and reloading to try a different world, but still, the potential for deathmatches in these spaces was clear, and would be a blast.

Combo downhill/slalom with deathmatch thrown in, kind of like rollerderby with guns, would be a blast, among other things, and I look forward to seeing how it progresses. Download it, have ten minutes of fun, then kep an eye on it over teh coming months.

Dufusses who post negative reviews about an Early Access game not being fully realized and buggy should be banned from Steam, not to mention the prat who gave a Not Recommended because he didn't have a VR headset yet. ID10T's aside, this is a free game, and as such is worth every penny. In the future, I have high hopes.. Hours of fun with friends, stellar party game. I bought it during the summer sale but would definitely pay full price for this :)

I usually play this at someone else's house with their account which would explain why I have such little time played.. It's an alright clicker game with a few twists which fit into the last USA election. However, it's quite outdated now for obvious reasons.

At this point in time the playable candidates, even the joke ones like the viking or the alien, have stopped saying their funny lines which would occur as you'd play the game. It was one of its most rewarding aspects, since getting a new character meant you got to see and occasionally chuckle at whatever their presidential ambition implied. Sadly, they're all silent now.

I also have no idea what they were thinking with the microtransaction prices. So you're telling me that a purchasable infinite boost button (a must in my opinion if you want to get far in this game) costs 25 cents, but to get two characters you need to spend a total of 9.99 €//$ on vote coins that are available through normal gameplay anyway?

I see no reason for you to want to jump to this at this point in time, as the election craze is over now and the bugs seem to be random whenever a new patch hits (an earlier version had you getting the wrong achievement for unlocking a certain character). There's better out there.. i am ashamed about how long i've played this. This game would not be so bad, if the puzzle pieces actually fit together.

But for real, the puzzle pieces did not even fit together.

cute dogs tho.. Cons:

- I thought I could live with my character always firing too fast, but I was wrong.
- Also, my Afterglow Xbox controller was not compatible.

Pros:

- + I like the sidescrolling aspect, makes it feel completely different than Touhou.
- + Beautiful graphics and music!

The ONLY reason I do not recommend this game is because of the firing speed.. Damn, this was a well executed... experience. Think of it as a movie where you can place the camera exactly where you want and rewind the time if you think you missed something. The developers have found a very sweet spot and hit it almost perfectly. Voice acting is top notch. About the only thing I can complain about is that some graphics can be slightly clunky, but that is of very little consequence when you compare it to the rest. Do I want more of this? Oh yes!

this is by far the worst pankiller ever made. it is buggy and glitchy like hell. The guy that made it just didn't have enough experience making levels interesting and fluent.. Update:

This appears to have been abandoned, if you can get it for $1 its fun but definitely dont pay full price. Will update again if anything happens but its not looking good at this point.

Original:

Really fun, great game!

It could do with some more levels but the dev seems to be working on it so I'm looking forward to see what comes in the future :). Purely amazing. That's all I can say.. I have been playing a few shmups of late mostly on my megadrive, Gynoug,Thunderforce 4, Rtype 3 on the GBA and also Gradius rebirth on the WII. Thunderforce being my favoirate shmup. This although not as good as Thunderforce is still a pretty good shmup for only a couple of quid probably on par with Gradius Rebirth in quality however is more playable due to the lower difficulty. Powerful feeling weopens, plenty of onscreen action with a tirade of bullets and enemies barely allowing you to escape by the skin of your teeth. Should tide me over until I buy hellfire or Musha (probably a repro at these prices) on the megadrive.. Impossible to play on windows 8.1 ( there should be a warning or they should be removed from steam ) those games ( every single one of them ) are currently unplayable on windows 8.1. Harambe's revenge. 10/10 would make this Ape escape again anytime.. No where as good as "Everlasting Summer", but a very nice way to show how they all are after. In the end I enjoyed it.. My 5 year old and 6 year old play this game. Very easy to use. Annoying that even though we play on desktop the game keeps saying move your 'joystick'... what f joystick??? Is a keyboard!!! :) girls are having fun so all good. Could do with a bit more challenges.. I highly recommend this game. It is such a fun game if you just want to chill with your friends or when just getting onto your computer. Overall this is a must in your steam library.. Played quite a while on this game so far and I think it has some real potential. A definite improvement visually from its predecessor and I prefer that this is largely controlled from the mouse rather than KB for movement and mouse for view on the last one.

Be warned and please remember that this game is in early access, so lots of missing content but not lacking potential! Updates are fairly slow to be released so if you want a finished product ASAP this may not be for you.
